Falls City Council approves housing agreement

(KLZA)-- The Falls City Council approved on final reading an ordinance to create the Southeast Nebraska Housing Partnership between Falls City and Pawnee City when they met Monday evening.

The vote was 7-1 with Council member Lucas Froeschl casting the nay vote. The agreement was approved previously by the Pawnee City Council members.

The Council also approved a resolution to continue with Justin Stark of the Olson Company to serve as City Street Superintendent.

An animal permit application to have two, potbelly pigs at 2516 Crook Street was approved for Lloyd and Greg Stone. Council members Froeschl and Jim Wisdom cast no votes with Council member Derrick Leyden abstaining.
