

Tie broken for Nemaha Co township trustee position

(KMZA)--A tie was broken at Monday's Nemaha County Commission meeting for Mitchell Township Trustee.

Following the general election canvass held on November 9th there was a tie vote between John Kohake and Dennis Rottinghaus.

Kohake's name was drawn, so he deemed as elected to the position of Mitchell Township Trustee.

In other business, County Senior Services/Public Transit Director Diane Yunghans informed Commissioners that she had to close the county's Meals on Wheels Program this week due to a shortage of staff at this time with so many of them quarantined.

County Attorney Brad Lippert told the Board he would like to review the road use agreements for the Irish Creek Windfarm to be constructed in Marshall County at next week's meeting since Commission Chairman Tim Burdick was absent from Monday's meeting.

Many Signals Communications