

HTRS hires new superintendent

The Humboldt-Table Rock – Steinauer School Board has hired the school districts next Superintendent.

During a special meeting December 17 the Board and the three people elected to the school board to be seated in January wrapped up interviews with three candidates and following an executive session the job was offered to Dr. George Griffith who is currently the Superintendent at Arapahoe, Nebraska.

HTRS Board President Neal Kanel said there were originally nine candidates for the job which was narrowed down to four finalists.

Dr. Griffith will begin his duties at HTRS following the conclusion of the current school year at a salary of $132-thousand.

Many Signals Communications