

Two arrested on drug possession charges in Richardson County

(KLZA)-- Two people are facing drug possession charges following their arrest by Richardson County Deputies shortly before 8:30 Sunday morning.

Deputies noticed a suspicious vehicle parked along Highway 75 with two people inside. Following an investigation the two were arrested.

36-year-old Kenneth Hicks of Lincoln was arrested on warrants from Lancaster County and is also facing new charges of possession of methamphetamine, possession of drug paraphernalia and driving under revocation.

24-year-old Casey Patterson of Winston Salem, North Carolina was arrested for possession of methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia.

Both were transported to the Richardson County Law Enforcement Center.

Many Signals Communications