

Separate altercations send two to jail

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman is in custody after allegedly hitting a man in the head with a metal bar.

According to a report from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, 31-year-old Gabrielle Cline was arrested Saturday for aggravated battery and criminal damage to property.

That follows police being called Saturday afternoon to the 500 block of North 9th Street for the report of a domestic disturbance.

The 47-year-old victim was examined at the scene by Atchison County EMS, and later transported to the hospital by private vehicle for treatment.

It's alleged that Cline damaged a door, as well as striking the man.

Following her arrest, she was transported to the Atchison County Jail.

In a second, unrelated case occurring Sunday, a 51-year-old Atchison man was arrested for threatening another man with a knife.

According to Wilson, 51-year-old Kelley Rutledge was taken into custody for aggravated assault.

That happened Sunday after police responded to a disturbance in the 600 block of South 5th Street.

The victim was not hurt.

Rutledge was located, and arrested, after having run from the scene.

Following his arrest, Rutledge was booked into the Atchison County Jail.

Many Signals Communications