Man charged in Leavenworth shooting death

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (AP) — A 21-year-old Leavenworth man has been charged with first-degree murder in a shooting death in Leavenworth earlier this month.

Leavenworth County Attorney Todd Thompson said Monday that Cordell Marqueise Stewart was charged in the death of 31-year-old Floyd Ross Jr.

Police responded to a report of shots fired in Leavenworth on May 4. They found Ross lying in the street suffering from gunshot wounds. He was taken to a hospital, where he was declared dead.
