

Additional candidates file in Nemaha Co

(KMZA)--With the filing deadline fast approaching, several additional candidates have recently filed in Nemaha County for city and school board positions up for election in November.

Two additional candidates filed last week for position 1 on the Nemaha Central USD 115 Board of Education. Incumbent Amy Sudbeck and Laurie Osterhaus join John Howard in seeking the position.

Incumbent John Deters also filed last week for re-election to position 6.

They are among four positions up for election on the USD 115 Board.

There was one additional filing last week for the Prairie Hills USD 113 Board. Doug Renyer filed for position 4, joining Anissa Bloom in vying for the seat currently held by Eed Reznicek.

It's among three positions up for election on the USD 113 board.

Incumbent Seneca City Council members Kylee Bergstrom and Alice Lackey filed last week for re-election.

No one has filed yet for the position of mayor, currently held by Joe Mitchell. Also no one has filed for the 3rd Ward Council position currently held by Jim Mitchell.

Candidates have until noon, Tuesday, June 1 to file at the Nemaha County Clerk's Office.

The general election will be held November 2 and a primary election will be held August 3, if more than three candidates file for a position.

Many Signals Communications