

Hospital treatment needed following Atchison wreck

(KAIR)--A Tuesday evening Atchison wreck sent an elderly woman to the hospital.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, the two vehicle crash happened around 6:15, at the intersection of Woodlawn Avenue and Pine Street.

It was at that location that an SUV, driven westbound on Pine Street by 83-year-old Mary Yankovich, of Kansas City, Kansas, entered the intersection at Woodlawn Avenue and collided with another SUV, driven by 35-year-old Emily Armstrong, of Atchison.

Yankovich was transported by Atchison County EMS for examination at Amberwell Atchison.

Armstrong, and her 40-year-old passenger, were examined at the scene by EMS but were not transported.

Yankovich was cited for failure to yield.
