

Pawnee City Council conducts public hearings

(KLZA)-- Two public hearings were conducted during the August 23 meeting of the City Council in Pawnee City.

Following a hearing drawing no public comment, the Council voted to give favorable comment on a new Class D liquor license for the Little Brown Jug , now owned by Scott and Carla Hanna.

The Council also conducted a hearing on a request from Mike Wilcox to narrow a portion of “J” Street from 11th to 14th Street to allow him to build a fence. Following the hearing the Council approved the request on final reading.

In addition, the Council approved vacating a portion of 12th Street from I to J Streets.

The Council also scheduled a public hearing on the One and Six Year Street Plan for 7:30 p.m. on Monday, September 13.

Many Signals Communications