

Armed standoff ends with arrest

(Hoyt, KS)--Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse reports a Hoyt man is behind bars following a domestic incident shortly before 10:00 p.m. Friday night.

The Jackson County Sheriff's Office received a 911 call from 14081 Q. Road where the caller reported that the male subject at the residence allegedly was intoxicated and fired a weapon a number of times from the residence. A female occupant of the residence was able to escape the premises without serious injury. The heavily armed male suspect fled the residence into an adjacent wooded area.

Deputies encountered the subject where a standoff ensued. After law enforcement negotiated with the man for a period of time, the suspect surrendered to law enforcement a little after 10:30 p.m.

The suspect, Daniel Charles Carlow, 63, of Hoyt was arrested and booked into the Jackson County Jail for the following: aggravated assault, aggravated assault on law enforcement, battery of law enforcement, criminal threat, felony interference with law enforcement, domestic battery, disorderly conduct and possession of a stolen firearm.

Many Signals Communications