

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=72890>

Nebraska City man facing charges in Richardson County

(KLZA)-- Richardson County deputies arrested a Nebraska City man at approximately 1:00 a.m. Wednesday morning after conducting a motorist assist on Highway 62 at the intersection with 645 Avenue.

During the encounter a probable cause search was initiated. During the search deputies found a substance alleged to have been methamphetamine.

32-year-old Eric Shipley of Nebraska City was arrested for possession of methamphetamine and driving under suspension.

Many Signals Communications