

Atchison woman killed in Kansas City shooting

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman is dead, killed last week in a Kansas City, Missouri shooting.

Dead is 23-year-old Emeleigh Wilson, identified by Kansas City Police this week after she was found dead inside a vehicle November 17.

Fox4-TV reports the discovery was made near Kansas City's North 15th Street and Walker Avenue.

Wilson's body was discovered in the vehicle after a man was found suffering from gunshot-related wounds outside a residence, located near North 16th Street and Walker Avenue.

The TV station, earlier this week, reported that the unnamed man remained hospitalized.

The investigation into the shooting is continuing.

Many Signals Communications