

Out of state man arrested in Jackson Co for drugs

(KAIR)--An out of state man, passing through the local area, found himself jailed after a traffic stop leads to the alleged discovery of drugs and false identification.

It happened Tuesday in Jackson County after a deputy stopped a car for a traffic infraction near 158th Road and U.S Highway 75..

According to a release from Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse 19-year-old Ryan Ahmad Mehio, of Chandler, Arizona, was taken into custody around 8:30 that morning on charges for possession of a stimulant, possession of a hallucinogenic drug, possession of drug paraphernalia, and possession of a fraudulent identity card.

Mehio was booked into the Jackson County Jail.

Many Signals Communications