

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=73808>

Atchison Q Street burglary investigated by police

(KAIR)--Atchison's latest residential burglary, this one occurring on the city's south side, is under investigation by Atchison Police.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, the burglary took place sometime during the day Tuesday, with thieves targeting a residence located in the 500 block of Q Street, where they forced their way inside.

Taken during the crime was jewelry, Playstation gaming systems, and coins. The estimated total loss is $4,000.

Anyone with information related to the burglary should contact Atchison Police at 913-367-4323.

Many Signals Communications