

Falls City man facing 19 additional charges

(KLZA)-- 19 additional charges have been filed against 35-year-old Thomas Summers of Falls City following further investigation in a case in which Summers was already facing charges of possession of concentrated THC, contributing to the delinquency of a minor and false reporting.

New charges filed against Summers Monday afternoon include conspiracy to deliver marijuana; six counts of conspiracy to deliver marijuana to a minor; six additional counts of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and six counts of child abuse.

Summers was arrested for possession of concentrated THC following a search of a residence at 620 Fulton Street in Falls City on May 15 when law enforcement were searching for a missing juvenile from Missouri. The juvenile was not found at that time.

On May 18, Richardson County Deputies and the U.S. Marshal Service searched the residence again and located the missing juvenile, returning the juvenile safely back to Missouri authorities.

Further investigation led the the filing of the additional charges.

Many Signals Communications