

Lancaster man arrested for alleged child sex crimes

(KAIR)--A rural Atchison County man is facing charges in connection to alleged child sex-related crimes that investigators say happened last month.

According to a release from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, 37-year-old Bradley Dean Scholz, of rural Lancaster, was arrested Thursday. He was taken into custody for indecent solicitation of a child and indecent liberties with a child, specified as being over 14-years-of-age.

According to the release, the crimes allegedly occurred between July 8 and July 9. They were reported to the Sheriff's Office July 15.

The release specifies that the victim was 15-years-old at the time the alleged crimes occurred. Laurie says the child was acquainted with Scholz at the time of the crimes.

Following his arrest, Scholz was booked into the Atchison County Jail.
