

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=74440>

Fentanyl sales earn prison in Leavenworth Co

(KAIR)--More than 10-years in prison is the sentence handed down in Leavenworth County District Court in a case involving the distribution of fentanyl.

According to a release from Leavenworth County Attorney Todd Thompson, 25-year-old Kansas City, Kansas resident, Christopher Renyer, was convicted for possession with intent to distribute fentanyl and methamphetamine, as well as possession of drug paraphernalia to distribute a controlled substance.

According to Thompson, Renyer was found by Leavenworth Police in a vehicle in the area of 1101 North 4th Street.

During the police investigation, Renyer was found to be in possession of the controlled substances, along with cell phones and baggies commonly used for distribution.

Many Signals Communications