Falls City Council approves permit for child care provider

(KLZA)-- The Falls City Council approved a conditional permit for Family Child Care Home II for Laura Goff at 2503 Crook Street when they met Monday night. It will allow Goff to hire another person to work with her caring for children at the residence.

A request for a new access way from 33rd Street into a property owned by the Falls City Rural Fire Department was approved.

In other action permission was granted to close Stone Street from 15th to 18th Street on November 25 for a lighted Christmas parade. Parking will also be blocked off in the 1500 to 1700 blocks of Stone Street between 5 and 8:00 P.M. that evening.
