

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=74773>

OP man strikes Atchison building, escapes injury

(KAIR)--An Overland Park man, traveling in Atchison Sunday, escaped injury despite a collision that included a building on the City- Main Street.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, Jackson Hoskins was driving in the 900 block of Main Street when he struck shrubbery, a mailbox, and a building.

Hoskins required no medical treatment following the wreck.

Wilson said Hoskins was cited for leaving the scene of the accident.

Many Signals Communications