Project ROAR reaches major milestone

(KLZA)- Peru State College has announced that one million dollars has been raised in the Project ROAR fundraising campaign.

Peru State President Dr. Michael Evans made the announcement recently but noted there is still a long way to go.

The project will add more than 104-thousand square feet of indoor space to the campus. Three of the buildings will be near the baseball and softball fields at the Centennial Complex south of the main campus. The other two will be built on a practice field north of the Oak Bowl.

Anyone interested in making a tax-deductible donation can call the Peru State College Foundation office at 402-872-2304. or email Ted Harshbarger at tharshbarger@peru.edu.
