

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=75322>

Highland man arrested on drug charges

(KNZA)--A Brown County traffic stop early Sunday morning led to the arrest of a Highland man on drug charges.

According to a report from Brown County Sheriff John Merchant, a sheriff's deputy stopped a vehicle in the vicinity of 250th and Prairie Roads around 3:15.

Based on the traffic stop, 40-year-old Zach Brown was arrested on charges of possession of methamphetamine, marijuana and drug paraphernalia. In addition, Brown was arrested on a felony parole violation.

Following his arrest, he was booked into the Brown County Jail

Many Signals Communications