

Marysville man waives prelim hearing in murder case

(KNZA)--A Marysville man, accused of killing his wife on Thanksgiving day 2022, waived his right to a preliminary hearing Friday.

Gerald Brown was bound over the Marshall County District Court on a charge of first-degree murder.

Arraignment was scheduled for April 4th.

Authorities responded to a 911 call early November 24 at 1070 Granite Road in Marysville where they found 57-year-old Jennifer Brown dead from apparent gunshot wounds. Her husband was taken into custody at the scene.

Brown remains in the Marshall County Jail, held on a $1 million bond.
