Atchison Man Involved in Alleged DUI Semi Accident Pleads Not Guilty

An Atchison truck driver accused of allegedly driving under the influence as he tipped a semi over in last fall pleads not guilty to felony DUI Monday in Atchison County Court.

Prosecution will present their case in a jury trial March 27th against Randall Gilliland.

He was arrested by Atchison County Sheriff's deputies following an accident September 27th where he overturned a semi into a ditch four miles east of Muscotah.

Officers believe Gilliland was allegedly under the influence of alcohol.

Gilliland is currently out on 10 thousand dollars bond.
