

Latest Nemaha Co city, school filings

(KMZA)--As the filing deadline nears, several additional candidates have recently filed in Nemaha County for city government and school board positions up for election in November.

According to the Nemaha County Clerk's Office, two candidates filed this week for position 7 on the Prairie Hills USD 113 Board. They include incumbent Leslie Scoby and Ann Shaughnessy. Three other positions are up for the election on the board.

Three candidates filed this week for the Nemaha Central USD 115 Board. Amy Huerter filed for re-election to position 3 and incumbent Owen Zinke and Kris Anderson filed for position 7. Two other positions are up for election on the board.

Two candidates have filed for re-election to three open seats on the Seneca City Council. They include 2nd Ward Councilman Steve Bennett and 3rd Ward Councilman Michael Stallbaumer.

Three candidates have filed for three open positions on the Sabetha City Commission. Nick Aberle has filed for re-election as Commissioner of Parks and Recreation. Jason Enneking has filed for Commissioner of Utilities, which is currently held by Norman Schmitt, Jr. Megan Bunck has filed for Commissioner of Streets, which is currently held by Julie Lancaster-Burenheide.

Candidates have until Noon, June 1 to file at the Nemaha County Clerk's Office.

Many Signals Communications