

Horton Man Killed In Wreck

A Horton man was killed and three Horton residents seriously injured in a single-vehicle accident early this (Wednesday) morning on a Brown County road.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says 20-year-old Chris Lavon Perry was traveling east on 130th Road, about 9 miles southwest of Powhattan, when he lost control of his Chevy Trailblazer and the vehicle rolled multiple times.

Perry was pronounced dead at the scene.

Two passengers,

16-year-old Cass Ellen Cadue and 19-year-old Brandon Negonsott, were transported to the Horton Community Hospital with disabling injuries. A third passenger, 14-year-old Maribel Saenz, was transported to Children's Mercy Hospital in Kansas City.

The Patrol says none of the occupants were wearing seatbelts.

The accident was reported shortly before 12:30 this (Wednesday) morning.
