Richardson Co deputies make five felony arrests

(KLZA)-- Richardson County Sheriff's deputies made five felony arrests over a 12 hour period from Monday evening through Tuesday morning.

According to the Sheriff's Office, deputies conducted a traffic stop in rural Richardson County late Monday evening. The search of the vehicle yielded suspected methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia.

27-year-old Breanna Evans, of Omaha, 25-year-old Chelsey Reed, of Council Bluffs and 23-year-old Raul Gonzales of Omaha, were arrested for felony possession of methamphetamine as a result of the vehicle search.

About 12 hours later, the Sheriff's Office says deputies executed a search warrant at 1803 Crook Street in Falls City. During the search, deputies located suspected methamphetamine, pills, marijuana, and related drug paraphernalia.

42-year-old Stephanie Vice and 47-year-old Christina Sipple, both of Falls City, were arrested for felony possession of methamphetamine, along with misdemeanor drug and infraction charges.

Following their arrest, all five were booked into the Richardson County Jail.
