SENCA to host town hall meeting in Falls City

(KLZA)-- Southeast Nebraska Community Action is hosting a Community Needs Assessment town hall meeting on Thursday, March 21 at the Falls City Library and Arts Center in The Stalder Gallery.

The meeting will be from 9:30 - 10:30 a.m.

All interested Richardson County residents are invited to attend the meeting, which will focus on the 2024 update to the SENCA Community Needs Assessment.

A discussion will be held to identify community strengths, weaknesses and prioritizing needs.
