

HTRS School District hosting meetings to hear from patrons
(KLZA)-- The Humboldt - Table Rock - Steinauer Board of Education has contracted with the Nebraska Association of School Boards to conduct three community and business leaders focus group meetings to discuss the needs of the children and communities served by the school district.

The first meeting will be Tuesday evening, March 12 from 7 - 8:30 p.m. at the Humboldt schoolhouse music room.

There will be two meetings on Thursday, March 14. The first will be from 5 - 6:30 p.m. at the Penn Colony Museum at Dawson with the second meeting at the Community Building in Stella from 7 - 8:30 p.m.

The school district is asking for residents to share comments on items of pride, accomplishments and achievements in the school and to share what skills students should have when they graduate from HTRS.

Ideas on how to attract families to the area to help grow enrollment and provide information on what one change you would implement I the HTRS School Distrit to benefit students success.

Each meeting is scheduled to last 90 minutes.
