

Horton principal resigns

(KNZA)--Horton Elementary School Principal Rainey Auen has resigned.

According to the unofficial minutes from last week's meeting, the South Brown County USD 430 Board of Education approved Auen's resignation, effective at the end of the current school year.

She has served in the position since August of last year.

The board also approved the resignations of Horton High School Athletic Director Nick Dowell and Horton Elementary School 3rd grade teacher Jenna Larson.

In addition, the board approved the resignation of Andrew Gwennap as high school head football coach, head wrestling coach, and assistant track and weight lifting coach.

All the resignations are effective at the end of the current school year.

Also as part of the consent agenda, the board approved the renewal of the contracts of Curriculum Director Robyn Allen, Horton High Principal Larry Mills and Everest Middle School Principal Travis Torkelson.

In other business, the board approved a $5 increase in driver's education fees and Mark Friess as a driving instructor for a $50 per hour hourly rate.

Also a senior class trip was approved to Branson, Missouri May 1st-2nd.

Many Signals Communications