

Missouri Tigers landed #1 recruit in their recruiting class

Missouri Tigers on national signing day may have signed the best recruit according to national ranking ever in school history, that being number one recruit, 6'6 wide receiver out of Springfield, Missouri, Dorial Green-Beckman. Green-Beckman decided to stay close to home and the Missouri Tigers are bringing in 18 other players along with him next year, for a total of 19 players in their recruiting class.

The Tigers recruiting class is ranked 20th by ESPNU and 32nd in the nation by Rivals.com.
