Nortonville Man Accused of Child Sex Exploitation Bonds Out

A 66 year old Nortonville man accused of visual sexual exploitation of a child bonds out.

Burton Tribble posted a 25 thousand dollar bond Friday evening.

He was arrested Thursday afternoon by Jefferson County Sheriff's Deputies for allegedly possessing downloaded sexually explicit internet material of children under 10.

The sheriff's department assisted the original investigation started by the internet crimes against children division of the Wichita police department and the Kansas Attorney General's office.

A preliminary hearing has been set in Jefferson County Court for March 13th.
