Onaga Winter Duals feature champions from three local schools

Onaga, Horton and Pleasant Ridge each had two individual wrestling champions Saturday at the Onaga Winter Duals.

Hunter Speer was the 132 pound champion for Horton and Michael Robinson won the 145 class for the Chargers. Tony Weber and Aaron Brown each won individual titles for Pleasant Ridge. Andrew Beck and Jacob Bryan took titles at 120 and 126 pounds respectively for the Buffaloes who finished with a 3-2 record as a team and fell two points behind runner-up Rock Creek. Onaga also got second place individual finishes for Chance Bloomer, Dalton Blow and Mychal Kolterman. The five-team-tournament was won by Burlington.
